Bright house located on the third floor of a classic building of 1900, with spectacular facade and lift.

The house has been designed by the architects Maroto and Ibañez. It is distributed in an entrance hall with large wardrobe that gives access to the living room, with semi-incorporated kitchen. The entire house can be insulated with invisible sliding doors or leave it almost diaphanous for greater comfort. After the room, you access a toilet and an office. The rest area has three bedrooms with en suite bathrooms. The master bedroom has a large dressing room. The house has a separate laundry room or ironing room.
