Located on the fourth floor of a distinguished classical corner building, this exclusive property, featuring three spacious street-facing balconies — one of them positioned on an elegant chamfered corner — represents an exceptional opportunity for those wishing to enjoy one of Madrid's most attractive and vibrant neighbourhoods. Surrounded by historic buildings, art galleries, boutiques, renowned restaurants, and a lively cultural scene, the property combines the charm of traditional Madrid architecture with all the comforts of a contemporary renovation. The apartment offers 82 sqm of built area, efficiently distributed to maximise both space and natural light throughout. The living area comprises a welcoming open-plan living and dining room with two balconies overlooking the street.

Its southeast orientation allows for abundant natural light throughout much of the day. The kitchen, visually integrated into the main living space and fully equipped with appliances, provides a modern and functional aesthetic that perfectly suits today's lifestyle. The sleeping area features two exterior-facing bedrooms and two full bathrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from an en-suite bathroom, offering an added level of privacy and comfort. The property also includes a practical independent laundry area, an increasingly valued feature for its functionality and organisational...
