We present this beautiful attic with high ceilings and exposed beams that makes it unique.

It is located on the fifth and last floor of a classic estate of 1905 well preserved and with elevator. We access to the house that has 205m² according to the land registry and we find a large open space where the living room and kitchen are integrated and equipped with appliances of leading brands. Thanks to the high ceilings it has been possible to enable a loft with a beautiful library and reading corner very well lit. The property has two double bedrooms with fitted closets and a large bathroom on two levels with double bathtub and shower and from which you could take two full bathrooms. The property is very bright being top floor and have windows to all orientations panoramic views are magnificent. It has air conditioning by splits and individual heating by natural gas. The property has concierge service and the doorman lives in it. It is a very special property located in the central neighborhood of Justicia a step away from the Gran Via and the commercial area of Fuencarral.
