This spectacular exterior flat is for sale on the seventh floor of a building on the prestigious Calle Orense, ideal both for those looking for a modern and comfortable home in an excellent location and for investors who want a property that is ready to move into or rent out. The flat has two double bedrooms, one with an en-suite bathroom and a second full bathroom, which serves the second bedroom. The living-dining room, thanks to its height and exterior orientation, receives abundant natural light throughout the day, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The fully equipped kitchen is open plan to the living room, adding spaciousness and functionality to the space. The property is delivered fully furnished and equipped, and the design renovation currently underway includes high-quality materials and finishes. The flat has a storage room and the building has a concierge service. Important: The property is currently undergoing a complete refurbishment, so the images published are for guidance only and correspond to another recently completed flat by the same refurbishment company, and in them you can appreciate the type of finishes and design. However, it is already possible to visit the property to view the space, brightness and layout of the property. Located just a few metres from Raimundo Fernández Villaverde and the Nuevos Ministerios transport hub, this flat is in...
