We present this magnificent house in the best area of Calle Orense, a step away from the financial center of Azca and the General Perón Park.

It is a sixth exterior floor of 127 m² built located in a manor estate from 1960. The house has been completely renovated resulting in a spacious and comfortable home. It consists of four bedrooms, three of them doubles and three full bathrooms, two of them en suite. The main room is exterior. The day area consists of a large living room with a fantastic wall-to-wall window and a large light source, an integrated kitchen with a practical island and paneled appliances. We highlight the renovation, thought to the last detail and made with high quality materials. The area is equipped with all essential services, the best shopping areas and the economic center of the capital. Can you imagine living here?
