In one of Madrid's most promising areas, next to General Perón Park on Infanta Mercedes Street, you will find this exclusive renovated apartment of 195 m² (according to the property registry), situated on a high, exterior floor. Its east-facing orientation, abundant natural light, and unobstructed views of the park make this home a particularly attractive option for those seeking spaciousness, privacy, and a strategic location between the Tetuán district and the AZCA financial hub. The property has been completely renovated and comes fully furnished, with a layout designed to make the most of every space. The living area features a spacious living room with a pleasant flow of natural light and a fully equipped independent kitchen, anchored by a practical central island. The sleeping quarters consist of three double bedrooms, an office that can be adapted as a workspace or an additional bedroom, and two full bathrooms. Additionally, it includes a parking space, a storage room, and an on-site doorman service, providing extra convenience for daily life. Living next to General Perón means enjoying one of Madrid's most dynamic areas, with the Santiago Bernabéu Stadium, AZCA, and Orense Street just a few minutes away. The culinary offerings, green spaces, shops, and excellent transport links make this enclave an ideal choice for both families and...
