Aproperties presents this wonderful penthouse with a brand new renovation, just a step away from Nuevos Ministerios.

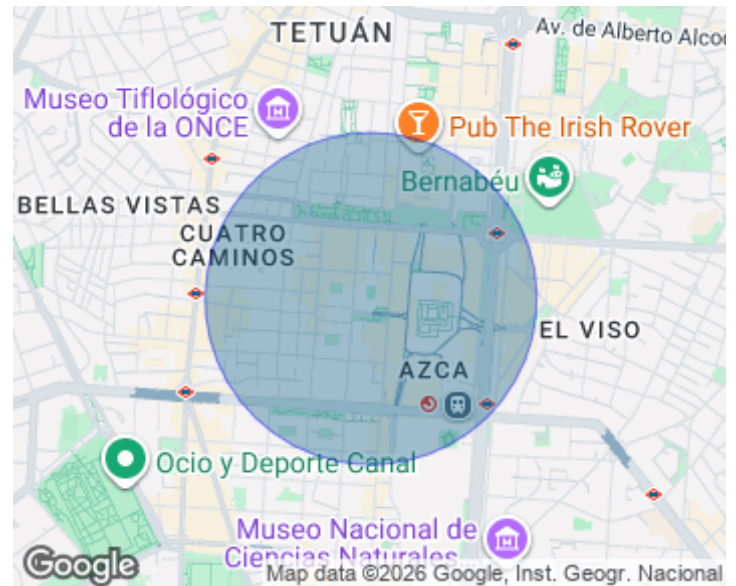

It is a 204 m² house built according to the cadastre located on the seventh and last floor of a manor estate from 1970 in perfect condition and in the financial heart of Madrid, next to AZCA and Paseo de la Castellana. It consists of a spacious and bright living room with access to a magnificent terrace facing west. The integrated kitchen overlooking the terrace and easily independent it, is modern and functional with large storage capacity and good appliances. The night area consists of three double bedrooms and three full bathrooms, two of them en suite. Thanks to the fact that it is a seventh upper floor and its west orientation enjoys an exceptional luminosity. We highlight the comprehensive renovation carried out taking care of the smallest detail, resulting in an elegant house with exclusive and functional design, with all the amenities. Central heating and hot water, ducted air conditioning in all rooms. Optionally for an additional 60,000 euros a large garage space for two cars with direct access is included. The estate is modern, with a manor portal and porter. As well as the installation of home automation throughout the house...
