This bright home for sale is situated on an interior second floor of a well-maintained building located on Calle Palencia, in the Cuatro Caminos neighborhood of Madrid. The property stands out for its functional layout, optimized spaces, and the tranquility of an interior-facing residence, set within a five-story building featuring concierge service and two elevators. The daytime social area includes a bright living-dining room opening directly onto a pleasant terrace—an outdoor space that provides extra breathing room and allows you to enjoy the fresh air. The kitchen is independent and renovated, boasting a practical layout with the option to integrate it into the living area to create an expansive, open-concept space. The sleeping quarters are well-delineated and comprise three bedrooms and two full bathrooms. One of the bathrooms has been recently remodeled and features a walk-in shower, while the second includes a bathtub. Notable upgrades include tilt-and-turn Climalit double-glazed windows, an armored security front door, recently installed floating wood laminate floors, and pocket sliding doors integrated into the walls. It also features brand-new air conditioning units in both the living...
