In one of the best areas of Madrid, in Cuzco, we find this flat of 170, completely exterior and very bright.

The flat is lying out in a day area with large living room, a room for guests located between the living room and the kitchen, which can be independent with mobile wooden panels. The kitchen is integrated and equipped with high-end appliances and all the necessary utensils, also has a separate laundry area. The sleeping area has a bedroom, with an elegant and practical dressing room, bathroom en suite with separate separate toilet with glass door and large shower tray. The apartment has two terraces closed with mobile glass panels that open with great ease, leaving virtually all the terraces to the outside. The flat has air conditioning, floor lighting, ceiling, shelves and strategic points. It is worth mentioning the large capacity cabinets that the floor has as well as the exquisite decoration. The building where it is located has a 24-hour concierge service and there is the possibility of a parking space on the statement.
