Spectacular exterior flat in Castellana, near the Plaza de Cuzco, and nerve center of the urban regeneration project Madrid Nuevo Norte.

This flat is located on a second floor with a lot of height of a representative building of the 60s, which has been carried out a design reform, large windows that provide a spectacular luminosity, custom furniture and a careful indirect lighting to enhance cozy environments. The flat is distributed in a large living room, separate dining room and fully furnished and equipped kitchen with a practical central island perfect for informal meals, as well as a separate laundry and ironing space that integrate the day area. The night area is composed of three large bedrooms with en suite bathrooms, the master bedroom with dressing room and access to a nice terrace. The flat is equipped with ducted air conditioning, individual heating, custom woodwork and excellent finishes designed by a team of interior designers who do not miss any detail to create a luxury product, ideal both as an investment and as a permanent home. Can you imagine living here?
