In one of Madrid's most exclusive residential areas, in the prestigious El Viso neighborhood, aProperties Real Estate presents this elegant renovated apartment of 228 m² according to the Cadastre, of which 195 m² correspond to the living area. Located in a 1960 building with concierge service, it stands out for its contemporary design developed alongside a renowned architecture studio, its west orientation, extraordinary entry of natural light, a spacious terrace, and an included parking space—an uncommon combination in this location. The home has been conceived to offer spaciousness and functionality, clearly separating the social area from the private quarters. The bright and spacious living-dining room opens directly onto the terrace and integrates with a designer kitchen equipped with high-end appliances and a large central island, designed both for daily life and for entertaining. It features four double bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms, with the master bedroom being exterior. Additionally, it includes a storage room and high-quality finishes that bring comfort and sophistication to every room. Living in El Viso means enjoying a peaceful and secure environment without sacrificing proximity to Madrid's financial district, renowned schools, restaurants, and all the necessary services for a comfortable life. It is a property especially suited for...
