In one of the most exclusive areas of Madrid, we find this magnificent apartment with a surface area of 320 m².

The reception area consists of a beautiful entrance hall with a coat closet and a very charming small guest toilet. From the hall, you access a spacious living-dining room, completely exterior and with plenty of natural light thanks to the windows and the terrace. The fully equipped kitchen with a dining area also has a practical pantry. The service area consists of a laundry area and a bedroom with a full bathroom. The sleeping area is divided into four bedrooms, one of them en suite with a dressing room, and the remaining three bedrooms share a full bathroom. The home has closets throughout, ducted air conditioning, and heating. The home includes a storage room and a garage for two cars. The property has an elevator and a concierge. The location is unbeatable, with a wide variety of shops and services, as well as restaurants and public transportation, and just a few meters from the El Corte Inglés department store in Castellana. Can you imagine living here?
