Viso is part of the district of Chamartín. The streets that border El Viso are the Av. de Concha Espina to the north; the Calle del Príncipe de Vergara to the east; to the west we find the Paseo de la Castellana and to the south with the Calle de María de Molina. El Viso is a prestigious residential neighborhood, with a varied architecture that combines historic homes with modern buildings. It is identified by its individual houses, chalets, built with three different urban typologies. Life in the El Viso district of Madrid is synonymous with exclusivity, quality of life...
