Discover this wonderful, renovated 109 m² home on the tenth floor along Avenida de Betanzos, in the established neighborhood of Fuentelarreina.

This brand-new, move-in-ready apartment boasts open, unobstructed views toward the Sierra mountain range and abundant natural daylight all afternoon long. Its west-facing orientation and elevated position grant it exceptional brightness and a sense of volume rarely found in the area. The layout is comfortable and functional, featuring three bedrooms and two full bathrooms. The primary bedroom includes an en-suite bathroom for added privacy, and the home features an independent laundry room to keep laundry activities separate from the main living spaces. Everything has been tastefully renovated with care, designed for anyone looking to step straight into a fully finished home. The terrace is one of its standout features: an outdoor space from which to enjoy views of the Sierra and the peacefulness that comes with living high above the city. In addition, the property includes a private garage space—an appreciated everyday convenience. The building also offers barrier-free accessible entrance. The neighborhood combines the calm of an established residential enclave with close proximity to parks,...
