In the exclusive area of Fuentelarreina-Puerta de Hierro in Madrid we find a very extensive plot of 2,284 square metres with a swimming pool, tennis court and direct private access to Monte del Pardo.

On this plot stands a superb, spacious and luminous house of almost 1,000 square metres with an unbeatable distribution over 3 floors. Upon entering, passing a beautiful solid wood door, we are welcomed by a majestic marble entrance hall with high ceilings, from which leads to the large living room presided by the fireplace and large windows from which you can access the porch of the garden and pool. On this ground floor there is also a large dining room, kitchen with dining room, living room and guest toilet. Going up the impressive staircase, on the first floor, we find all the bedrooms of the property. The master bedroom with access to a large terrace overlooking the garden and the Pardo mountain with en suite bathroom and dressing room, and five other bedrooms, two of them en suite and an additional bathroom. In the attic there is currently a very spacious and bright living room, thanks to its large velux windows, which can be used as a games room, family room or office, with large built-in wardrobes. The basement floor houses a garage with capacity...
