On Calle Princesa, in the Gaztambide neighborhood, we have for sale a renovated 142 m² exterior apartment within a 1935 building.

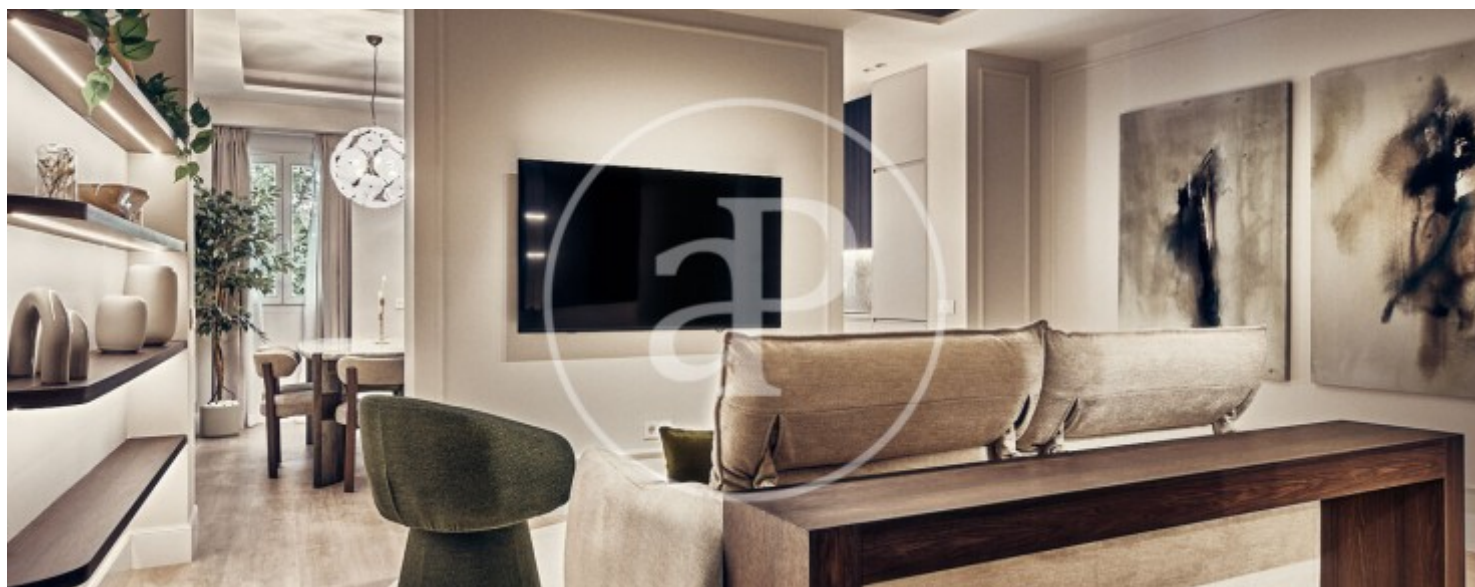

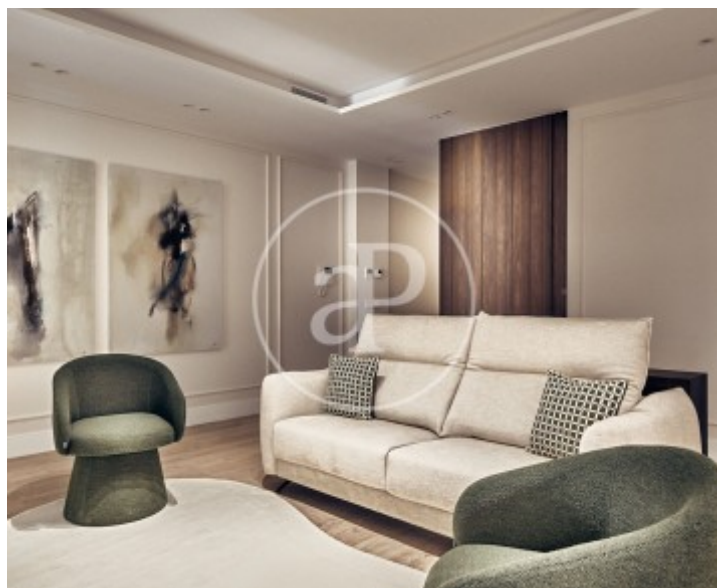

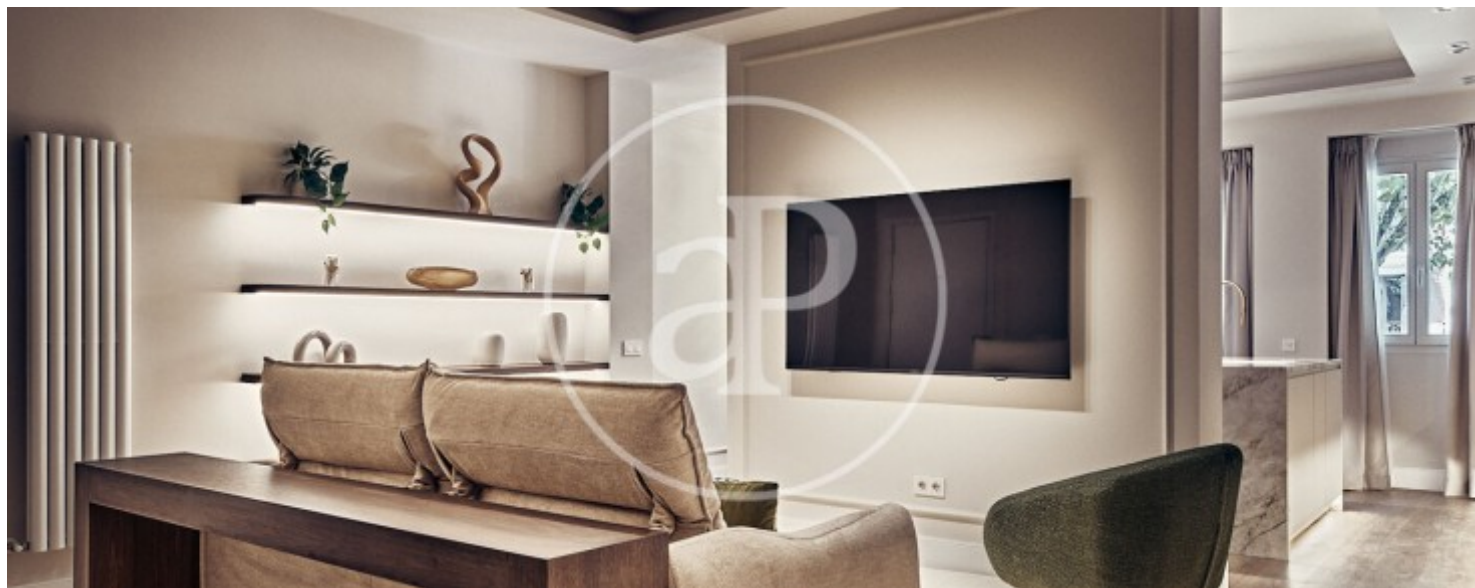

It is one of those spacious and well-distributed flats that define this traditional Chamberí neighborhood, with an interior completely updated by Arctempus, paying attention to every material and finish. It is on a first floor with an elevator and is delivered furnished, ready to move in. Inside, the home is organized around a large, bright living area, with a living room and a fully equipped open kitchen, where wood and marble set the character of the space. It is completed by three bedrooms, two of them en suite with their own bathroom and dressing room, three full bathrooms in total, and a laundry room. It also features individual boiler heating and ducted air conditioning. Living in Gaztambide means enjoying a neighborhood with its own identity, with the Chamberí Market just around the corner, local cafes and shops, and Parque del Oeste and Ciudad Universitaria very close by. A quiet environment that is at the same time very well connected to the center. It is a home designed for those looking for spaciousness and design in an established neighborhood, without giving up anything. It comes on the...
