This beautiful home is located in Fernando el Católico, a privileged and much sought after area of the capital.

The apartment, located on a second floor outside, has been recently renovated and has 126sqm distributed in a spacious and bright living room, with two large balconies that makes the room especially warm and inviting, and with an open kitchen to the original living room design. The rest area has three bedrooms, the main en suite with hydraulic floor, and another with a large double bathroom, plus a toilet. In the images you can see the great quality of the reform and the taste in all the finishes; everything has been renovated to create a modern, functional and comfortable home. It is a great opportunity to invest in a newly renovated house in a privileged area. The apartment has a tourist license.
