There are properties that are simply bought.

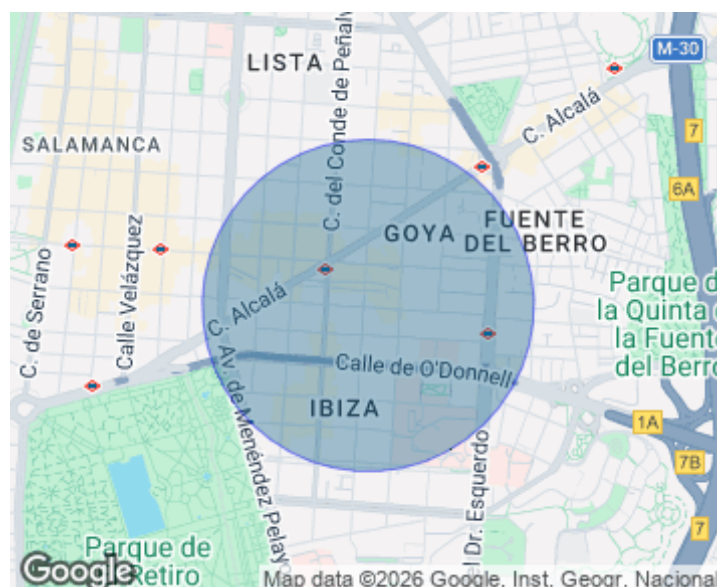

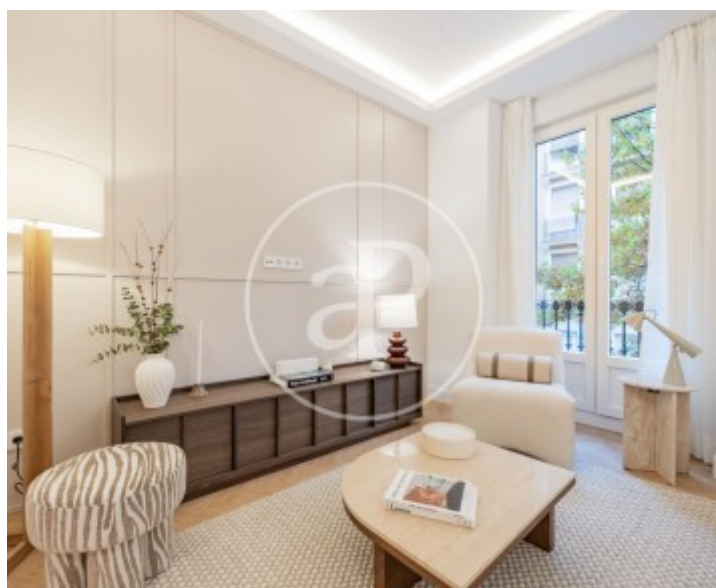

And there are others chosen for the way they allow you to experience Madrid. In an elegant classic building on Fernán González Street, just minutes from El Retiro Park, comes this exclusive comprehensive renovation project conceived for those seeking contemporary design, natural light, and an unrepeatable location in one of the capital's most sought-after addresses. With 98 m² carefully designed, the home has been planned to offer spacious, functional, and timeless spaces. Its layout contemplates a generous social area where the living room, dining room, and kitchen interact in a single continuous space, designed both for everyday living and for entertaining guests. The sleeping area will consist of two bedrooms and two full bathrooms, highlighting an elegant master suite with an en-suite bathroom, conceived as a private and comfortable sanctuary. Every room has been designed using clean lines, noble materials, and meticulously planned lighting that will enhance the warmth of the property. One of the standout features of this property is its corner positioning, boasting six exterior balconies—an extraordinary feature that is remarkably hard to find in the Salamanca District....
