In the heart of Barrio de Salamanca, on one of the most sought-after and tranquil streets near General Pardiñas and Ayala, we present this magnificent home in a classic building—a perfect blend of architectural elegance and brand-new contemporary renovation. Located on a third-floor exterior with an east-facing orientation, the property enjoys exceptional natural light throughout the morning thanks to its four street-facing windows and unusually clear views for the area. The representative building, with the charm of classic Madrid architecture, adds heritage value and appeal, whether for residence or investment. The apartment offers 103 sqm carefully renovated, with a modern and highly functional layout. It features two spacious en-suite bedrooms, both with private bathrooms, providing comfort and privacy. The brand-new renovation combines contemporary design, quality materials, and an elegant aesthetic designed for a modern lifestyle. Its location is one of its main highlights: surrounded by local shops, restaurants, and renowned gastronomic spots, just a short walk from the main streets of Barrio de Salamanca. This area has high demand both nationally and internationally, making it an excellent investment opportunity, whether as a primary residence, second home, or an asset with strong growth potential. A bright, elegant property, ready to move into, in one of...
