This corner penthouse, situated on the sixth and top floor of a fine building in the Barrio de Salamanca, offers a rare combination of light, privacy, and open views.

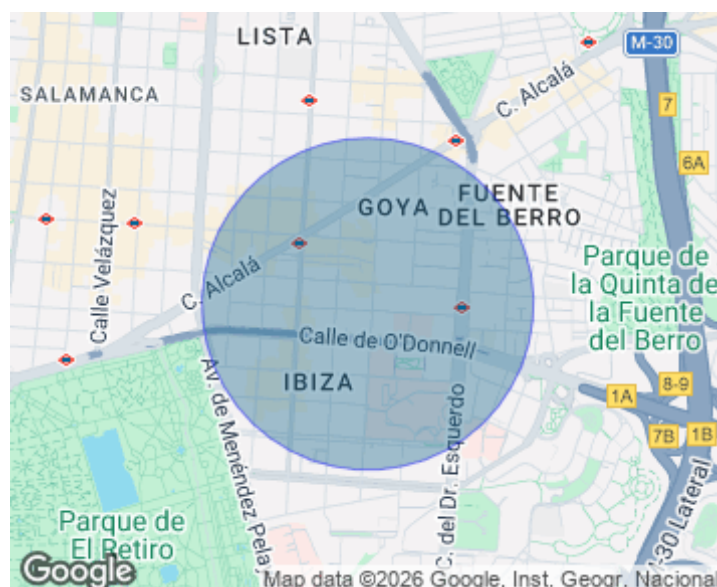

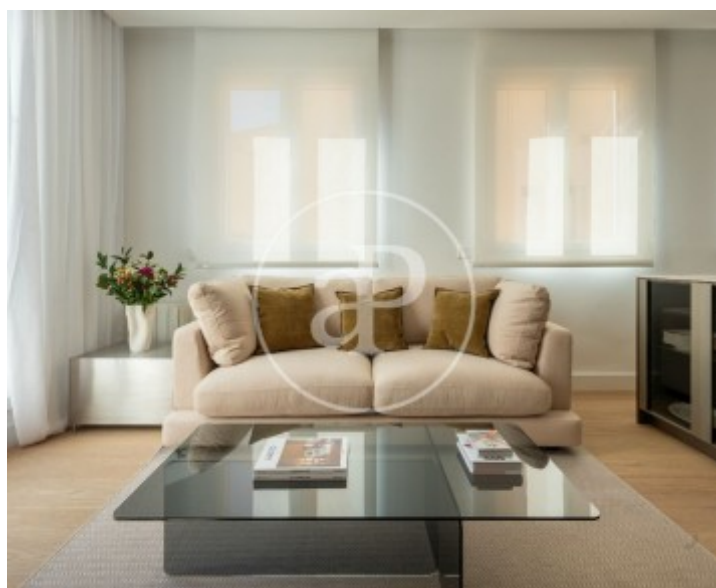

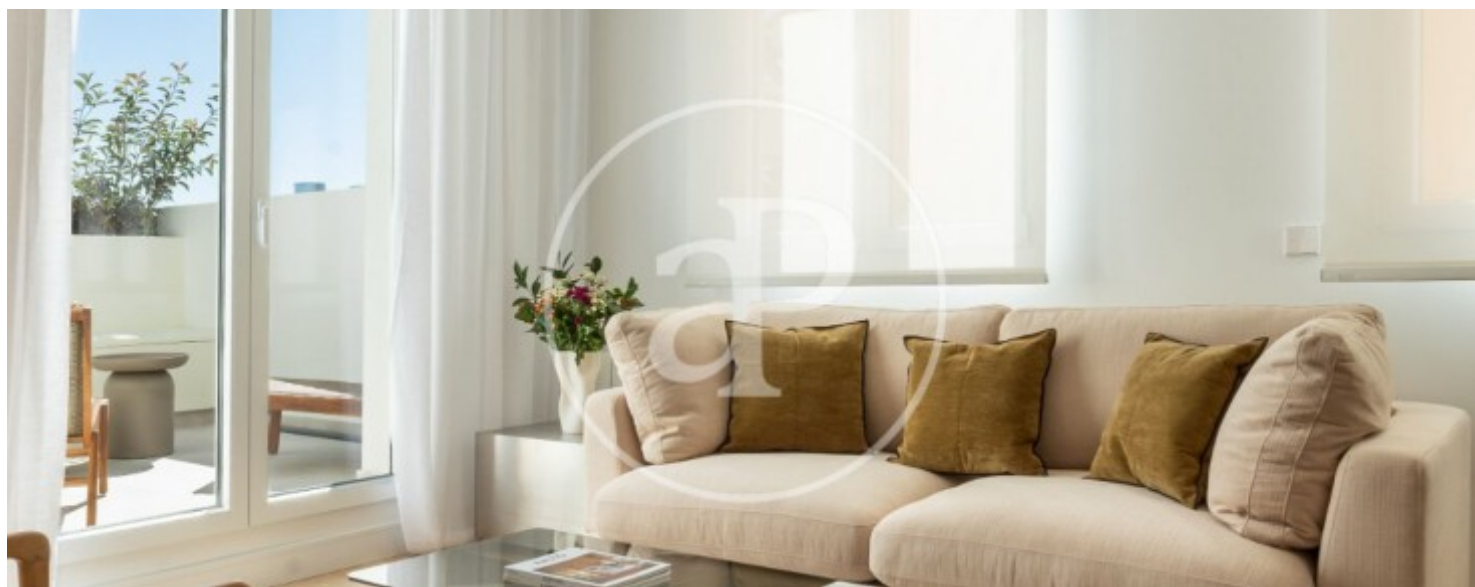

With 104 m², south-facing orientation, and nothing built above the terrace, the residence enjoys an exceptional connection with the outdoors: it features 9 façade openings and all of its spaces have exterior-facing windows. It is a property specially designed for those seeking contemporary design, quality, and a prime location in Madrid. The home has been renovated to demanding standards, utilizing noble materials and high-quality finishes. Its layout includes 2 bedrooms and a third space currently set up as an office, ideal for working from home or adapting to each owner's needs. It also features 2 French doors (balcony doors), one of which provides direct access to the terrace, where open views can be enjoyed. The laundry area is integrated into an independent cabinet, separate from the kitchen, offering functionality without interrupting the continuity of the design. Living here means enjoying the residential character of the Barrio de Salamanca without giving up the energy of Madrid. Restaurants, boutiques, services, and some of the city's most emblematic landmarks are...
