Magnificent 140 m² residence in the heart of the Goya neighborhood, Salamanca district.

A property distinguished by its generous volume, exceptional natural light, and refined interior decor, ideal for those seeking a home with distinctive character in one of Madrid's most desirable enclaves. Renovated six years ago with an aesthetic combining classic elegance and contemporary design, the apartment is sold fully furnished, offering the turnkey convenience of moving straight in without the need for renovations or furnishing from scratch. The daytime living area features an expansive, exterior-facing living room that is bright and inviting—perfect for daily relaxation as well as entertaining family and friends. The residence also includes a dedicated separate space currently configured as a home office and library, ideal for remote work, reading, or a versatile multipurpose room. The fully equipped kitchen pairs functionality with contemporary design, featuring clean-lined cabinetry and a practical dining breakfast area. The private quarters are currently arranged into two bedrooms and two bathrooms, with the primary bedroom featuring an en-suite bathroom—a layout that ensures optimal comfort, privacy, and independence. In addition, the...
