Spectacular, brand-new renovated home on a floor of a stately building with a beautiful classic façade, grand entrance hall, and meticulously maintained common areas on a prestigious street in the Salamanca district, Goya area. The property stands out for its extraordinary brightness, its four balconies facing the street offering lovely unobstructed views, and its excellent renovation, which successfully blends the comfort and modernity of a contemporary, elegant design with the classic, stately style of the building. It features a large living-dining area open to a magnificent, fully equipped designer kitchen—an ideal entertaining area for enjoying unforgettable moments with family and friends—while the four exterior balconies provide wonderful views and exceptional light. The home offers three spacious bedrooms with ample built-in wardrobes and three bathrooms, with the master bedroom being exterior and featuring a lovely street-facing balcony. All of them are perfect for families or those seeking space and comfort.
