This 144 m² property represents an exceptional opportunity for buyers seeking an apartment full of character in a classic building to design a bespoke home.

Featuring three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a south-facing orientation, the residence stands out for its five street-facing balconies, which flood the space with natural daylight and create a charming connection with the surrounding city streetscape. Located in an address to be specified, it offers an appealing choice for those who value period architecture and wish to customize every room. The building preserves distinctive historic elements, including a vintage wrought-iron cage elevator and on-site concierge service. The apartment is currently in need of updating, providing an ideal canvas to reconfigure the layout and interiors to match the future owners' exact lifestyle needs. The proportions offer a generous foundation to establish a bright and welcoming daytime living area, comfortable bedrooms, and thoughtfully planned spaces that harmonize functionality with interior design. The five balconies and south-facing aspect serve as an ideal starting point to maximize natural light and highlight the indoor-outdoor dialogue. Living in a classic period building means enjoying architecture...
