In the Salamanca District, there are many fine addresses.

Very few allow you to gaze upon them from above. Located on the fifth floor of a building with a protected facade on the prestigious Jorge Juan Street, this exclusive residence represents an exceptional opportunity for those seeking spaciousness, privacy, and unobstructed views that are hard to find in one of Madrid's most established areas. The elevation completely transforms the experience of living in the city: more light, greater tranquility, and a sense of space from the very first moment. Spanning 151 m², the project has been conceived to create a home where every room breathes roominess and functionality. The social area is articulated around a large living-dining room connected to a designer kitchen, generating open-plan spaces that invite both daily enjoyment and entertaining guests in complete comfort. The layout incorporates three bedrooms, three full bathrooms, and a guest toilet, offering a perfect balance between entertaining and private life. The master suite has been projected as a true sanctuary within the home, while the remaining...
