Located on the fifth floor with a south-facing orientation, aProperties presents this elegant residence set within a beautiful early 20th-century classic building, featuring a traditional wrought-iron lift and all the architectural details that define Madrid's most distinguished period properties. Situated in one of the most exclusive and sought-after areas of the Salamanca District, this home stands out for its stately character, exceptional natural light, and charming outdoor spaces. Natural light is one of the property's defining features, thanks to its two balconies connected by a continuous terrace and a delightful enclosed bay window that enhances the sense of space, character, and openness. A home designed for those who appreciate the beauty of classic architecture combined with contemporary comfort and style. The interior layout offers three bedrooms, two of them with en-suite bathrooms. The principal bedroom features a freestanding bathtub integrated into the space, adding a sophisticated and relaxing atmosphere. The property also includes three full bathrooms and a guest toilet. A separate laundry area and a storage room complete the layout, providing practicality and convenience for everyday living. The social area has been designed for both entertaining and daily enjoyment. A spacious living and dining room flows seamlessly into a stunning designer kitchen...
