It is a fifth floor of 163 m² according to the land registry and is located in a classic finca from 1952, well preserved.

It consists of a spacious living/dining room and an integrated kitchen of about 50 m² with a bay window and French balconies facing south. It has three large bedrooms, two of them en suite and a third complete bathroom, as well as a practical laundry area. The master bedroom is also exterior with south orientation and two beautiful balconies. The bedrooms all have large built-in wardrobes of great capacity. We would like to highlight the designer refurbishment of this property, taking the utmost care of the details and finishes of the interior design. Beautiful mouldings on ceilings and walls, oak wood flooring in wide format, designer kitchen with a large marble island, top brand appliances panelled. The heating and hot water are individual and the air conditioning is by ducts in all the rooms. The property has a concierge service. The area is one of the most sought-after in the capital and is equipped with essential services. Can you imagine living here?
