On Calle Antonia Mercé, right in the heart of the Goya neighborhood, we have for sale a 168 m² exterior home within a 1953 building.

It is one of those spacious and well-distributed apartments that define the best of Salamanca, with an interior completely updated by Arctempus, paying attention to every material and finish. It is on a second floor with an elevator and is delivered furnished, ready to move in. Inside, the home is organized around a large, bright living area, with a living room and a fully equipped open kitchen, where veined black marble sets the character of the space. It is completed by three bedrooms, three full bathrooms, and a laundry room, plus a terrace that adds a pleasant outdoor space. It features communal heating, split air conditioning, and a storage room. Living in Goya means feeling the pulse of top designer brands, with Serrano's Golden Mile and El Corte Inglés just five minutes away, specialty coffee shops and local commerce, and El Retiro park very close by to disconnect. A dynamic yet highly comfortable environment. It is a home designed for those looking for spaciousness, outdoor spaces, and a privileged location, without giving up a thing. It comes on the market for €2,110,000, and at...
