In the heart of the District of Salamanca, in the dynamic and elegant neighborhood of Goya, is located this imposing property of 174 m².

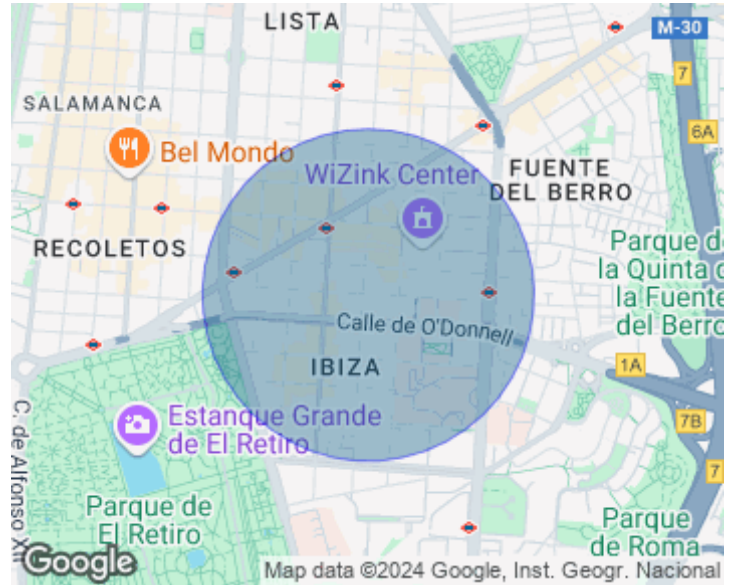

Located on the third floor of a 1958 building with concierge service and elevator, the house has been completely transformed by the prestigious Arctempus studio, achieving a perfect balance between the classic essence of Madrid and the most avant-garde functionality. Wide spaces and connection with the outside. The social zone has been designed to maximize light and fluidity. It has a large living-dining room that is harmoniously integrated with an open concept design kitchen, fully equipped with state-of-the-art appliances. This space extends outward through a balcony and terrace, providing a valuable connection to the urban environment of Via Duca di Sesto. Privacy and comfort in the rest area. The night area stands out for its spaciousness and capacity, ideal for families or those looking for spacious stays: 4 bedrooms: Rooms designed with high-end finishes and large storage capacity. 4 full bathrooms and 1 guest toilet: Spaces that use noble materials to create a private spa atmosphere. Cutting-edge technology and qualities. This property is delivered fully furnished with selected design pieces and features...
