This fully renovated exterior home occupies a high floor of a classic 1936 building with an on-site concierge, located in one of Madrid's most established and sought-after areas.

Its south-facing orientation guarantees excellent natural light throughout the day, enhancing the warm character of its spaces. It is a home designed for those seeking high-end living in Madrid, combining classic architecture, contemporary comfort, and a layout tailored for everyday enjoyment. The social area brings together the living and dining rooms into an expansive, fluid space connected to a custom-designed, semi-integrated contemporary kitchen that preserves a sense of independence. Adjacent to it is a generously sized separate laundry room. The private quarters feature three bedrooms, all with en-suite bathrooms; the master suite includes a spacious walk-in closet and a private bathroom, while the other two bedrooms offer built-in wardrobes. A guest toilet completes the layout. Natural oak flooring, light carpentry, and neutral tones deliver visual continuity and a timeless aesthetic. The renovation incorporates double-glazed windows with thermal break, brand-new electrical and plumbing installations, ducted hot/cold climate control with an Airzone...
