Aproperties presents this magnificent, recently renovated home—measuring 189 m² according to land registry records—located in the Goya neighborhood of the Salamanca district.

It is situated just steps away from the El Corte Inglés department store on Goya Street and a mere seven-minute walk from Retiro Park. The property also features a pleasant terrace of approximately 6 m² and stands out for its abundant natural light, spacious layout, and high-quality renovation. The home comprises three spacious double bedrooms—all with en-suite bathrooms—plus a guest toilet. The living area consists of a large living-dining room spacious enough to create distinct zones; it offers direct access to the terrace, which boasts pleasant, unobstructed views. The fully equipped kitchen includes a separate laundry area. Of particular note is the exquisite, comprehensive renovation, designed by an architectural firm and executed with meticulous attention to detail. The quality of materials and finishes, the carefully planned lighting design, and the high ceilings combine to create an elegant, warm, and inviting home, renovated with impeccable taste. It features ducted air conditioning and individual heating. The property is situated...
