In one of the most prestigious areas of the Salamanca district, next to Alcalá Street and on the renowned Ayala Street, lies this magnificent 210 m² apartment, completely renovated and ready to move into. Located on the fifth floor of a 1948 building, the property combines the spaciousness of a stately home with the comfort and functionality of a contemporary renovation. Its location allows you to enjoy one of Madrid's most sought-after residential areas, just a 15-minute walk from El Retiro Park and a mere 5 minutes from El Corte Inglés department store on Goya Street. The apartment boasts a carefully planned layout, clearly separating the day and night areas. An elegant entrance hall leads to a pleasant living-dining room with an exterior view, accompanied by a separate office, ideal for working remotely or creating a private reading and work space. The kitchen, designed as a transitional element between these two areas, provides continuity and functionality to the overall design. The sleeping area features three bedrooms, each with a dressing room, offering excellent storage space. The master bedroom also boasts an en-suite bathroom. The property is completed with a second full bathroom, a guest toilet, and a separate laundry room—details that add convenience to daily life and reflect the meticulous attention to detail in the renovation. It has individual...
