A luxurious apartment in Madrid's Salamanca district, designed for high-end temporary stays where privacy, space, and design are paramount.

With abundant natural light, high ceilings, and spacious living areas, it is ideal for corporate accommodation, international relocations, embassies, and expatriates seeking a stable base in Madrid. Managed by Flat Sweet Home, the apartment was completely renovated and decorated by Swedish designer Patrick List (Nordic Standard). The result is a refined and discreet home, designed for extended stays: clean lines, premium materials, and a layout that facilitates a balance between work, family life, and relaxation. Features At 207 m², the apartment boasts a functional and flexible layout: a master suite, two additional double bedrooms, plus a separate suite with a private bathroom and kitchen, ideal as staff accommodation or additional support space, depending on the stay. In total, there are four full bathrooms (the master suite includes a bathtub and shower) and a guest toilet. The main living area centers around a high-end kitchen with a large island and a breakfast bar for three. It includes a wine cooler and Smeg small appliances, as well as complete amenities for extended stays. The dining room seats eight...
