aProperties presents this extraordinary 310 m² property (according to the cadastre), situated on a high floor of an elegant classic building with a magnificent facade in the Goya neighborhood of the Salamanca district. A truly unique home, the result of a top-tier comprehensive renovation conceived from an architectural vision that transcends traditional living spaces to create an environment where art, design, and architecture exist in total harmony. Natural light is the central element of the design, serving as the guiding thread through a meticulously planned layout. The social reception area is anchored by a spectacular, generously sized living room conceived as an expansive gathering space that integrates distinct environments: a large seating lounge, dining area, library, and a sophisticated cocktail lounge. These open, flowing spaces interact naturally, imparting a sense of fluid continuity and balance. The living room also features an elegant bay window (mirador) and classic street-facing balconies, flooding the space with extraordinary natural light. The kitchen, crafted with the same commitment to quality and functionality seen throughout the property, includes a separate dedicated service entrance. The private sleeping quarters comprise three magnificent double bedrooms, all exceptionally spacious and featuring private en-suite bathrooms, designed to offer...
