Aproperties presents this exclusive renovated house of 379 m2 according to cadastral located in the heart of the Goya neighborhood, within the district of Salamanca, one of the most sought-after areas of Madrid for its classical architecture, its gastronomic and commercial offer and its proximity to the Retiro Park. It is a flat designed for those seeking space, privacy and a representative home in a privileged location, combining residential tranquility with the comfort of living on one of the main arteries of the capital. The property stands out for the generosity of its spaces and for a very balanced distribution. It has four double bedrooms, three bathrooms, toilet and a large living area organized in different environments with direct access to the terrace. The kitchen, fully equipped with high-end appliances, is complemented by a separate dining room, laundry and service area with bedroom and bathroom. Almost all the rooms are exterior and several of them have large balconies, bringing great luminosity and a pleasant feeling of spaciousness. It has an independent service entrance. The renovation stands out for its high quality, unconventional materials and an especially careful design for those who value detail, comfort and exclusivity. The house is located in a beautiful classic estate with an imposing stately portal, concierge service and large storage room. A unique property in the...
