aProperties Real Estate presents this exclusive residence located on a sixth floor of a representative building with elevator.

A house that stands out for its extraordinary luminosity and its high ceilings with crossed beams, an unusual architectural feature that brings special and different character and personality. The living room, spacious and elegant, becomes the centerpiece of the house thanks to its large windows, which flood the space with natural light throughout the day. The fully equipped kitchen combines contemporary design and functionality with ample storage. The rest area offers two spacious bedrooms, highlighting the main one with a walk-in closet, designed for a comfortable and organized lifestyle. Living in Goya means enjoying one of the most dynamic and complete areas of Madrid, with a first-rate shopping, gastronomic and cultural offer, as well as excellent connections. An ideal environment for both everyday life and to invest wisely. A property designed for those who value light, design and the possibility of creating their own space in a privileged location. Check the price and discover with aProperties Real Estate all the potential of this unique home. The house is in the final renovation process. It will be delivered...
