Bright, exterior refurbished flat on the fifth floor of a classic building, with a beautiful façade and a good entrance, in the Barrio de Salamanca, in the representative street of Goya, surrounded by restaurants, shops, schools, hospitals, public transport and all kinds of services. The property is being refurbished by the owner with high qualities and a special attention to detail, and an excellent use of space. The day area will have a beautiful living-dining room open to a fully equipped designer kitchen. The night area consists of three beautiful bedrooms with large built-in wardrobes and three complete bathrooms. It is currently under construction and the photos correspond to another work carried out by the same architect. Can you imagine living here?
