In the prestigious Salamanca neighbourhood, in the area of Goya, just a few metres from the Plaza Felipe II, the Retiro Park and the most exclusive shops in the capital, surrounded by all kinds of services, restaurants and leisure areas, we find this exclusive and wonderful property located on a first floor exterior with a built area of 220 m². It is a property that has been completely refurbished to the highest standards, with elegant interior design and careful attention to detail in the lighting. It is distributed in a beautiful day area comprising a large and welcoming entrance hall that opens onto a spacious and bright outdoor living/dining room adjoining a glazed kitchen with an elegant and functional design that is fully equipped with top of the range appliances. The night area has two large bedrooms, the master bedroom with a large en-suite bathroom with shower and freestanding bathtub, a spacious dressing room and an office area. The second double bedroom, large and spacious, has wardrobes and an independent full bathroom. The property has a large laundry area where the space has been used for large storage capacity. The property has ducted air conditioning in all rooms and gas central heating. The property in which it is located is a modern building, with concierge, lift and is adapted for people with reduced mobility. The enclave in which it is located enjoys the proximity to...
