Exceptional and bright exterior house located on a third floor, with pleasant views of a wide and representative street in the Barrio de Salamanca, surrounded by boutiques, restaurants and entertainment areas. The property is located in an elegant classical estate of 1929, with common areas carefully preserved. The house is being completely renovated by the property, with a modern design that transmits elegance, comfort and convenience in all its rooms. It has a magnificent living room with two balconies facing south and overlooking the tree-lined street and open to a fully equipped design kitchen with high end appliances. The night area has three large double bedrooms, both with beautiful en suite bathrooms. The master bedroom also has a large dressing room. It has central heating and air conditioning in all rooms. The farm has a concierge service. Can you imagine living here?
