Wonderful house, exterior renovated, located in the renowned street of Conde de Peñalver, neighborhood of Salamanca, Goya; in representative royal estate from 1920, with beautiful classical facade, large portal and well-kept common areas. This property has been completely renovated with premium qualities as a brand new home, elegant, functional and with a distribution designed to maximize space, light and daily comfort. The house is characterized by its excellent distribution, with clear separation of the road zone from the rest area, its beautiful balcony facing the street and its magnificent renovation, creating spacious and bright spaces. The day area is composed of a magnificent living room, dining room open to a beautiful design kitchen, fully equipped with paneled appliances and a functional island/bar that allows comfortable use both for daily life and to receive guests. There is also a laundry area. The rest area has three large double bedrooms and three full bathrooms; two of them en suite. The sleeping area consists of three bedrooms and three bathrooms. Two bedrooms have en suite bathrooms, the third bathroom serves the third bedroom and also serves as a courtesy toilet for guests. The interior design project is supported by neutral tones, decorative moldings, custom carpentry, indirect lighting, warm floors and a selection of furniture and lighting that brings a...
