This renovated 83 m² interior apartment is located on Calle General Pardiñas, in the heart of the Goya neighborhood—one of the most dynamic and well-established areas of the Salamanca district. Situated on the sixth floor (with elevator) of a 1928 building, the property has been completely transformed, featuring a modern design and a carefully curated selection of materials evident in every finish. Because it faces a spacious interior courtyard, the home is quiet and bright—ideal for those seeking city-center living without sacrificing tranquility. Inside, the layout centers on a social area featuring a living room and a fully equipped open-plan kitchen, creating a comfortable space for both daily life and entertaining. It includes two bedrooms—the master with a walk-in closet—and two full bathrooms, one of which is finished in dark marble and features a built-in shower. Additional amenities include individual gas heating and air conditioning; the property is delivered furnished and ready for immediate move-in. The Goya neighborhood serves as a natural extension of the "Golden Mile." Calle Serrano, Retiro Park, and El Corte Inglés are just five minutes away, surrounded by boutiques, specialty coffee shops, and renowned restaurants. Everything is within easy reach, offering the perfect blend of commercial vibrancy and residential charm...
