On the iconic Calle Jovellanos, in the heart of the Cortes district, aProperties presents this elegant property situated in a classic, stately building.

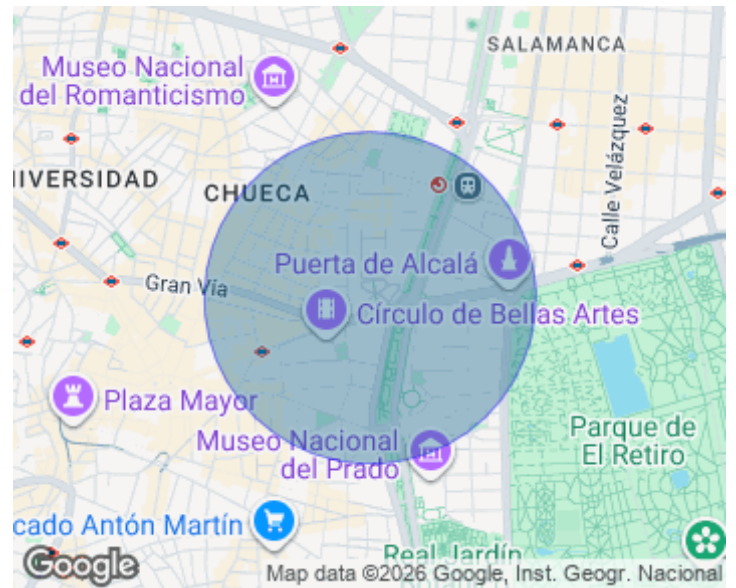

The property stands out for its exceptional natural light, its four external balconies and the beauty of its high ceilings with original mouldings – features that lend character and a sense of spaciousness to every room. The property retains fine materials such as marble, slate and wooden floors, preserving the charm of classic Madrid architecture in one of the most exclusive and iconic locations in the centre of Madrid. The property features a spacious main living room flooded with natural light, three bedrooms and three bathrooms, two of which are en suite. The layout has been designed for comfort and functionality, and also includes a separate ironing and laundry room. The flat is in good condition and offers interesting possibilities for updating and personalising it to suit different lifestyles. As a bonus, the building features a pleasant communal rooftop terrace with lovely views over the rooftops and historic buildings of Madrid. There is also the option to rent a parking space just a few metres from the property. The Cortes-Huertas neighbourhood, also known as the 'Barrio de...
