Magnificent exterior apartment, fully furnished and decorated in an eclectic style where classic and modern elements coexist harmoniously.

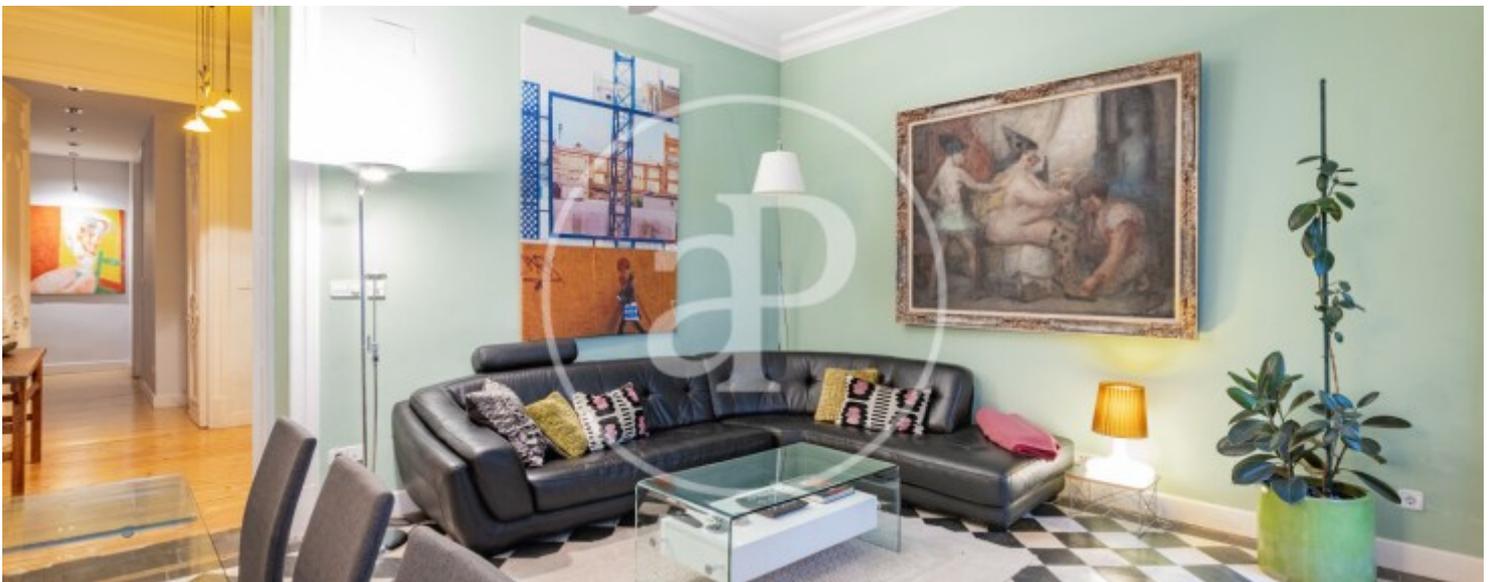

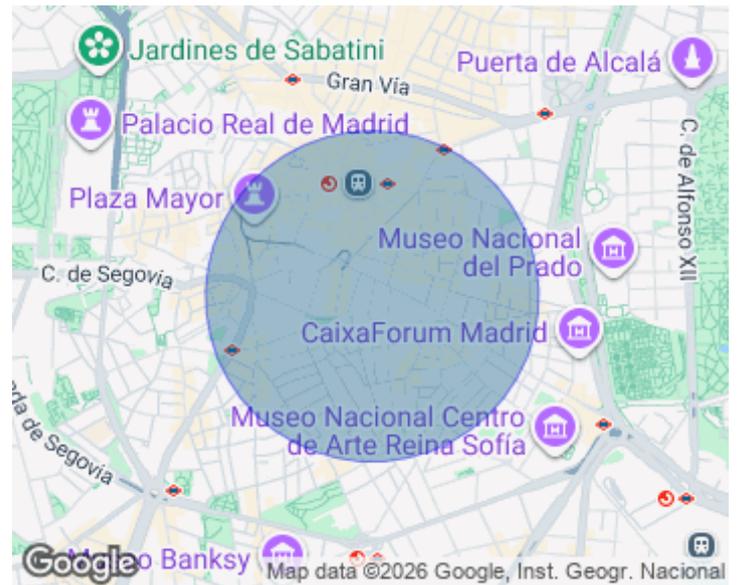

It is located in a beautiful, protected building, a former theater in the heart of Madrid. This unique, fully renovated apartment comprises a very spacious living-dining room with three balconies offering city views, a modern eat-in kitchen equipped with top-of-the-line appliances and a professional coffee maker. The sleeping area has two bathrooms and three bedrooms, one of which is a French-style suite with a sink and shower. All the bedrooms are very welcoming and spacious, with double beds and views of a large, bright interior courtyard. Its prime location on a quiet street places it just steps from theaters, bars, cafes, restaurants, boutiques, department stores, and the iconic Huertas and Sol neighborhoods. The Reina Sofía Museum, the Paseo del Prado, Puerta del Sol, and metro, bus, and train stations are all within easy walking distance. A health center, supermarkets, a local market, and local and international schools are also nearby. Can you imagine living here?
