In the heart of the Cortes neighbourhood, one of Madrid's most iconic and sought-after areas, this 223 sq m flat (according to the Land Registry) occupies a prime position on Calle Cedaceros, within a prestigious building dating back to 1905, and offers an exceptional renovation opportunity. With nine balconies overlooking the street, classical architecture and original features such as original hydraulic mosaic tile flooring, this property combines the character of a historic building with the potential to create a truly unique home. It is an exceptional opportunity for those seeking to design an exclusive residence or unlock the property's outstanding investment potential in one of Madrid's most desirable locations. The property is currently configured as a co-living residence with 11 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, offering a wide range of possibilities for reconfiguration. Its layout allows it to be transformed into a spacious family home, several luxury suites or a high-end residential project, whilst preserving the property's character and making the most of the extraordinary natural light provided by its numerous balconies. Living in Cortes means enjoying the most authentic side of Madrid. Situated between Calle de Alcalá and Carrera de San Jerónimo, just a few minutes' walk from Puerta del Sol and Paseo del Prado, this enclave combines historical...
