In the heart of the Barrio de las Letras, next to the most emblematic streets, we can find this two-bedroom penthouse.

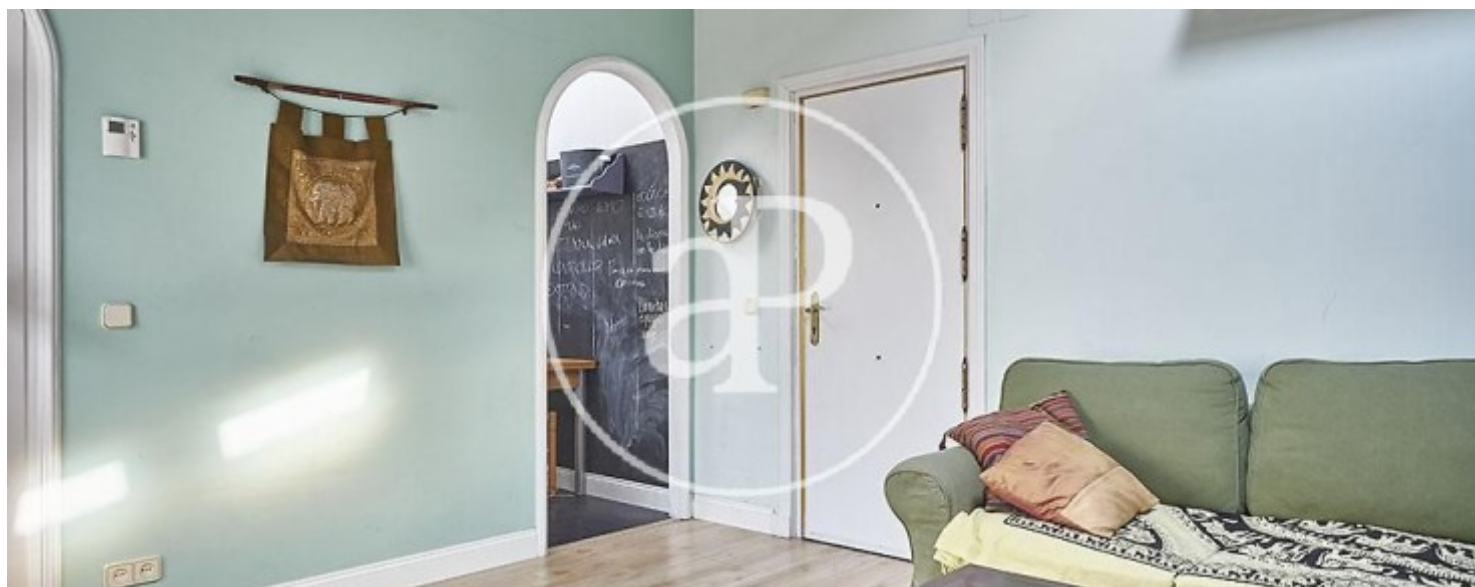

The building is located on a street surrounded by services, transport, cultural and catering offer. It is a classic and quiet building. It has one neighbor per floor, except in the last floor on which there are two. The penthouse of 35sqm has been recently renovated. It has a large living room with fireplace that serves as a distributor for the rooms. From it you access the two bedrooms, one double and one single, the kitchen and the bathroom completely renovated. Both bedrooms have closet and storage space. Likewise, from the living room you access the terrace, completely independent and overlooking the city. The heating and air conditioning is by cold-heat pump and has been divided into living room and master bedroom. There is a storage room, which is communal, included in the rent.
