Centrally located apartment in the historic and charming Las Letras neighborhood.

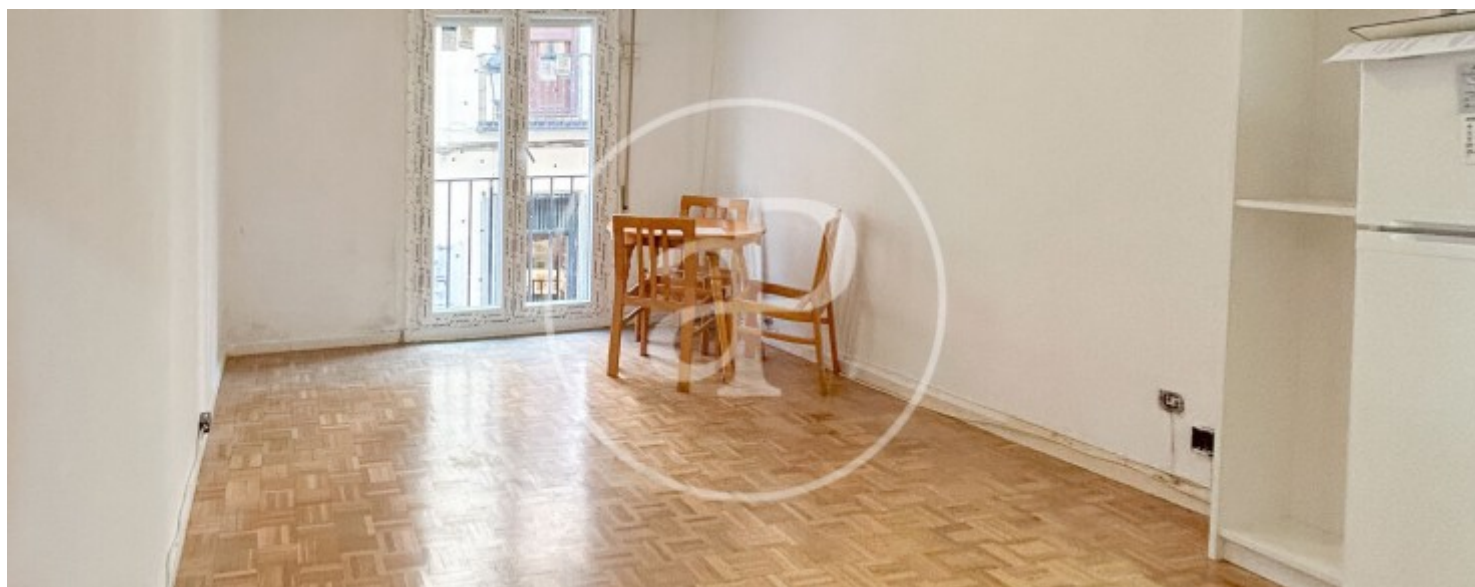

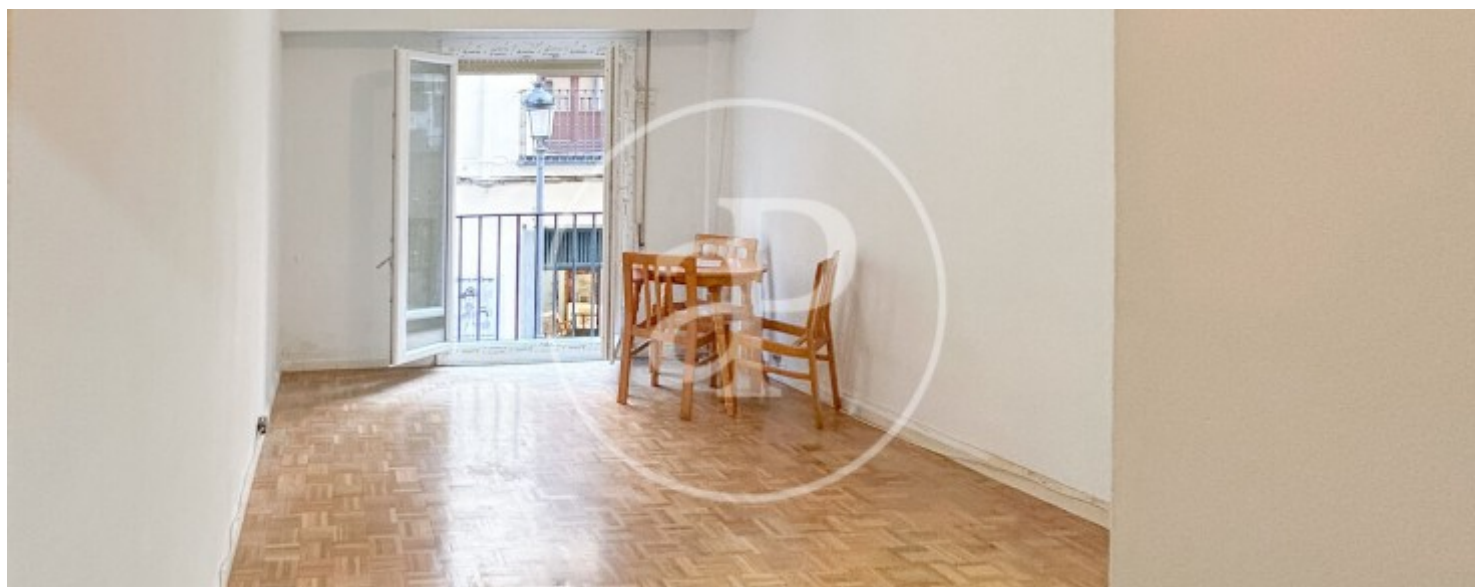

The apartment features a spacious and bright living-dining room with a balcony overlooking the iconic Calle de Cervantes. It also includes a small kitchen, a bathroom, and a bedroom with a large terrace of approximately 10 square meters, a particularly attractive feature. The building has a concierge service and is situated on a quiet street. This apartment is ideal for a couple, an executive, or long-term students, as the neighborhood is one of the most charming in central Madrid and boasts restaurants, boutiques, theaters, markets, a health center, and is just a short walk from the Prado, Thyssen, and Reina Sofía Museums, as well as the Congress and Botanical Gardens. Excellent transport links connect it to the Banco de España, Sevilla, and Tirso de Molina metro stations, and it is also very close to the Atocha train station. Can you imagine living here?
