Located in one of the most sought-after areas of the Barrio de Ibiza, this elegant outdoor apartment in C/ de Fernán González offers a perfect combination of design, functionality and privileged location, just a few steps from the Parque del Retiro. The house has two spacious bedrooms, both with en suite bathrooms, plus a courtesy toilet. The social area is carefully designed, integrating a bright living room, dining room and a semi-independent kitchen that provides balance between openness and privacy, ideal for both day to day and to receive guests. Thanks to being an outdoor floor, the house enjoys excellent natural light, enhancing each space and generating a sense of spaciousness and comfort. Located in the prestigious neighborhood of Ibiza, this property is surrounded by an unbeatable offer of restaurants, shops, services and transport connections, consolidating itself as one of the most sought-after areas of Madrid both to live and to invest. The images included in the file correspond to indicative renders that reflect an approximate proposal of the final result of the housing, allowing you to visualize the potential of the project. Can you imagine living here?
