In the neighborhood of Ibiza, within the district of Retiro, is this renovated apartment of 120 m2 located on the first floor of a beautiful classic finca.

A house that combines the character of traditional architecture with modern interior design, ideal for those seeking space, natural light and a privileged location in Madrid. The living room, spacious and bright, is integrated with a designer kitchen equipped with high-end appliances, creating a comfortable and functional space for everyday life. The rest area offers three bedrooms with floor-to-ceiling cabinets and two full bathrooms, one of them en suite. The renovation has been meticulously done, achieving a natural balance between aesthetics and comfort. Ibiza is synonymous with quality of life: tree-lined streets, dynamic atmosphere and the Retiro Park just a few minutes away. The area has an excellent gastronomic offer, services and proximity to the Gregorio Marañón University General Hospital, as well as very good transport connections. A house designed for those who value space, design and a consolidated neighborhood life in one of the best areas of Madrid. Check the price and discover its full potential.
