In the Retiro district, we find this recently renovated penthouse, where attention has been paid to every detail.

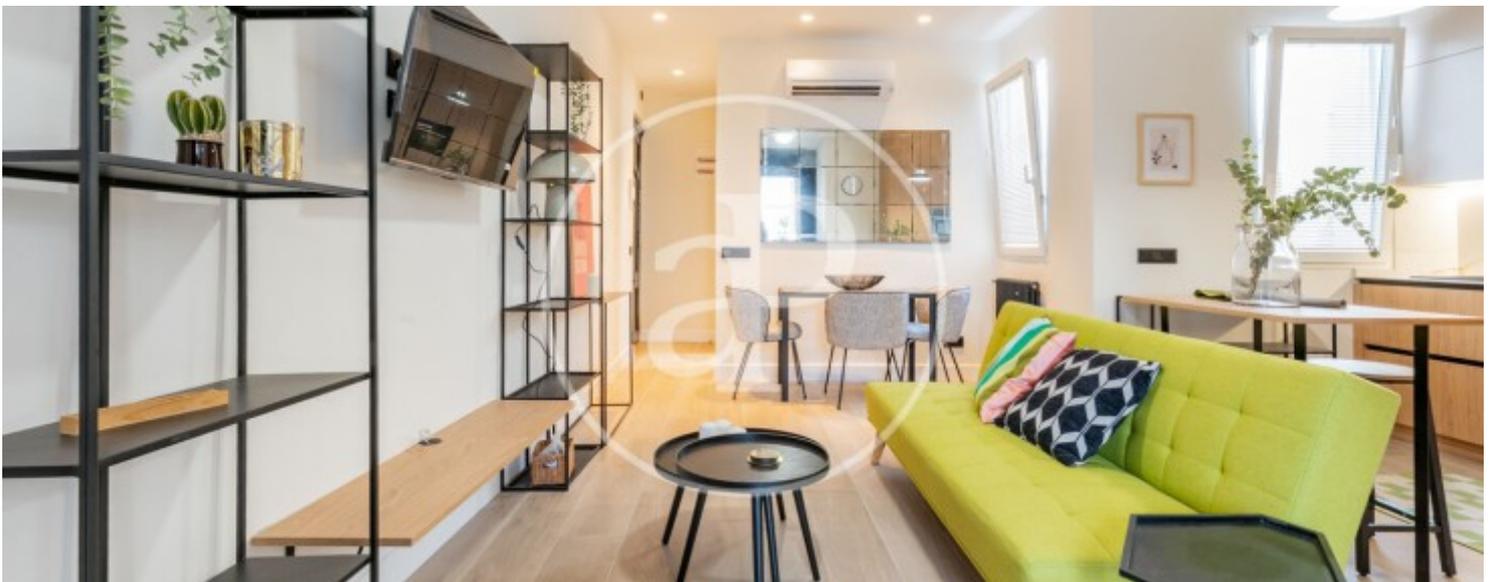

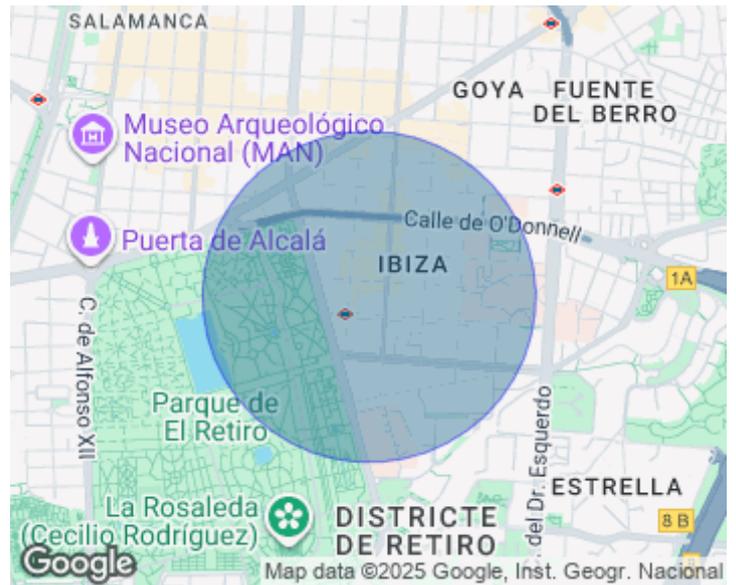

From the entrance, you enter an open-plan living-dining-kitchen area, creating a spacious social space with access to a large south-facing terrace. The kitchen is fully equipped with state-of-the-art appliances. The apartment also features a double bedroom with large built-in wardrobes, a TV, and a double window overlooking Ibiza Street. The apartment has a very spacious bathroom with a window and a shower. The apartment includes central heating, natural gas hot water, split-system air conditioning, and additional fans in the living area and bedroom. The apartment is located in a stately building with accessible entrances, an elevator, and a concierge service. Parking is also available for rent in the building across the street. Can you imagine living here?
