We present this magnificent residence located in the established Imperial neighborhood, just a few meters from Puerta de Toledo and the Carlos III University—a privileged location combining convenience, amenities, and excellent transit links, all right next to central Madrid. The apartment stands out for its meticulous renovation, excellent spatial layout, and, above all, the brightness provided by its exterior location despite being on the ground floor (piso bajo). The layout offers spacious and functional rooms, featuring a pleasant living-dining room with an integrated kitchen that creates an open-plan, welcoming area with a great sense of space. The home comprises two double bedrooms and two bathrooms, thoughtfully arranged to maximize every corner and provide optimal comfort. It is in excellent condition, having been privately renovated with special attention to detail, making it completely move-in ready with no further work required. It includes individual natural gas heating and split hot/cold air conditioning. An ideal opportunity for buyers looking for a renovated home in one of Madrid's most attractive areas, just minutes from Puerta de Toledo. Can you imagine living here?
