Aproperties sells this exceptional property (off-market) located in the emblematic Alfonso XII street, opposite the Retiro Park, one of the most exclusive and rare enclaves of the luxury real estate market in Madrid. With 165 m² completely renovated to the best qualities, this house represents a real gem within the luxury floor segment in front of the Retiro and prime real estate Madrid. Located on a first floor with extraordinary luminosity, it has street balconies with direct views of the Retiro Park, a privilege reserved for very few properties in the capital. The main hall is projected outward integrating natural light and green landscape as an essential part of the space. The visual connection with the park provides space, serenity and a sense of exclusivity that is difficult to replicate in the center of Madrid. The house has three bedrooms en suite, a format highly demanded in the high end property market Madrid and in the luxury apartment segment Madrid Retiro. The master bedroom en suite incorporates a dressing room and one of the balconies with open views to the Retiro, becoming a true private space of premium lifestyle category property. Waking up with direct views of the park consolidates a unique residential experience. The comprehensive renovation has been carried out with high-end materials, contemporary design and finishes that raise the standard within the luxury real...
